O Lord,
Support us all the day long,
Until the shades lengthen,
The evening comes and
The busy world is hushed,
The fever of life is over
And our work is done,
Then Lord, in your mercy
Grant us a safe lodging, A holy rest and peace at last,
Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

After Glow
'Td like the memory of me to be a happy one,
'Td like to leave an after glow of smiles
when life is done,
'Td like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days,
'Td like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun,
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

Solace They are not gone - these loved ones whom we mourn, We must not think of them as far away. Unto a fuller life have they been born. Laying aside the vesture of this clay, Yet near as still they watch, and love and know; We are the blind ones who no longer see familiar forms that we so dearly loved, Waiting reunion in eternity. <small>© St. Mary's Abbey, Glencalm, Cistercians</small>

Hail Mary, full of grace, The Lord is with Thee. Blessed are thou amongst women, And blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, Pray for us sinners, Now and at the hour of our death. Amen. <small>© GLENCAIRN ORIGINAL DESIGN</small>	Isn't it strange that the one we need and the one we love the best is just the one that God needs too

My Rosary What comfort just to clasps it, my Rosary so dear; each Rosary brings fresh courage and drives away all fear. In prayer so oft repeated, yet never growing old, I read the wondrous story of God's own love unfold. Each chaplet forms a garland, to place on Mary's feet; Fair buds and full-blown roses exhaling fragrance sweet. The crucifix which crowns it reminds me day by day, To bravely bear my crosses along earth's rugged way. I hope when life is ended and death shall set me free, Still twined around my fingers will be my Rosary. <small>© St. Mary's Abbey, Glencalm, Cistercians</small>	 "I have loved you with an everlasting love, So I am constant in my affection for you." <small>Jeremiah 31:3</small>

Memorare Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known, that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thy interces- sion, was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of Virgins, my Mother, to thee I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy clemency, hear and answer me. Amen <small>© St. Mary's Abbey, Glencalm, Cistercians</small>	 Our Lady of Perpetual Help Pray for him.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, Or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, If so we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, As any friend could say, Perhaps you were not there at all, Just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, We thank you, So very much whatever the part. <small>© St. Mary's Abbey, Glencalm, Cistercians</small>	 In Loving Memory

God's Garden

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest, God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew you were in pain,
He knew that you would never Get well on earth again.
He said the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids, And whispered "Peace be Thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want, fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose.

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

Psalm 23:1-2, 6
